Girls can do anything

Exciting Senior School Teaching Positions 2010-2011

Renowned for expertise in the particular learning needs of girls, BSS offers a single-gender environment that helps girls achieve their best, both academically and in their life's pursuits. Continually reaching forward, renewing itself and keeping time with the fast-paced changes and increasing demands of the complicated world its graduates will face, BSS believes girls can do anything and strives to give them the 21st century tools to realize whatever dreams they conceive.

French Teacher

You are an energetic, interactive and dynamic Intermediate/Senior French Teacher with a minimum five years' experience and currently teaching French at the high school level. Experience in pursuing inquiry as a pedagogical framework as well as innovative use of technology tools to support and enhance language learning are necessary for continued growth as part of our team. Fluency, together with a university degree in French and a solid background in second language methodology, are essential. Strong knowledge of resources in literature and language, awareness of contemporary issues in language learning, the ability to make connections between language learning and global citizenship and a solid understanding of assessment and evaluation in second language learning are key to this position.

Visual Arts Teacher

One-Year Appointment

A practising and skilled artist with a captivating portfolio who is experimental, innovative and forward-thinking, you provide several years teaching experience within an inquiry-project-based learning setting. Knowledge of Modern and Contemporary Art combined with awareness of developments in current popular digital media, related experience in art production for print, web, sculpture, installation as well as commercial media, plus traditional art such as painting, drawing, sculpture and photography are essential. A working knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Flash, and Autodesk Maya is key for our innovative and technology-infused environment. You value and excel in collaborative team-work and understand the need to integrate visual arts in an environment focused on emergent curriculum. Creativity and expertise in inspiring original conceptual thinking and understanding about the arts in adolescent girls is your passion. A Fine Arts degree with a B.Ed or a Masters Degree plus related experience with a variety of medium are preferred.

You are committed to best practices and have a superior academic/teaching track record, appropriate experience, and Ontario Teaching Certification. You are passionate about your work and eager to teach as part of a team pursuing a pedagogy of inquiry. You are keen to participate in the life of the school, including co-curricular activities.

Our faculty have extensive opportunities for leadership and professional development, are paid at or above the Toronto District School Board Grid and contribute to the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan.

BSS is a learning environment for everyone and only those inspired by the opportunity to participate and contribute to that environment will be considered. Interested applicants should forward cover letter and resume in writing to Human Resources at The Bishop Strachan School, 298 Lonsdale Road, Toronto, ON, M4V 1X2, Fax: 416.481.5632 by Wednesday, March 24, 2010.

We thank all candidates in advance.

We will, however, contact only those selected for an interview.
